THE POWER OF THE SUPERNATURAL

WITH TODD WHITE

Delivered from a life of anger and drug addiction, Todd has since been used mightily to impact people's lives all around the globe. Known for his bold approach to street evangelism and prayer, he's become an inspiration to Christians everywhere. So we got together with Todd to find out more about what drives him and how he's encouraging others to not simply have faith, but to live it out.

Q: HOW DID YOU COME TO BE IN MINISTRY?

TW: Well, I went to work and got a job. My job was my ministry. So I never had a mindset that I need to be in ministry. Every believer is drafted into ministry. I just did my job as unto the Lord. I didn't ever ask to speak. I worked for an ice company, and I delivered ice to people, often of various different religions. And I would see between 10 and 30 people healed and come to Jesus every day of my life at my job. And so when I was driving my ice truck, people would come up to my ice truck because they knew that I would pray for people. And I had to make sure I did my job as unto the Lord, so I had to produce and keep up with everybody else I worked with. And I wanted to be outstanding in my job. See there was never a separation for me between ministering to people and working.

Q: WHAT DOES A REGULAR DAY IN THE LIFE OF TODD WHITE LOOK LIKE?

TW: I get up and spend time with the Lord. Before I even get out of bed, I'm in a state of thankfulness. I thank God for who He is in my life. I thank God for what He says about me. I thank Him for another day of being able to manifest Him to a lost and dying world. Every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday I fast. So I live a fasted life. On those days it's a constant state of prayer. It is any way, but it's just different on the days you fast. Where ever I go, I approach people. To me, this is not ministry. Jesus started me in a place where I didn't separate God, then family, then ministry, then work. No one ever taught me that.

Q: WHAT WOULD YOU SAY TO SOMEONE WHO IS STRUGGLING TO STEP OUT AND BOLDLY SHARE THEIR FAITH?

TW: Well, Romans 1:16 says, "I'm unashamed of the Gospel, for it's the power of God unto salvation to them that believe: first for the Jew, then for the Greek." The power of it is in the righteousness. For in the Gospel the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith. So it all boils down to understanding that you have right standing with God, the One that created you. God's not mad at you. He's not ashamed of you. He's actually thrilled that you believe that He loves you like He says He does. So this thing all comes down to knowing that God loves you. People always ask me how I step out in faith. I say, "believe that you are who God says you are." I travel the world and preach the Gospel, but I talk to people individually everywhere I go. And there is not a lot of people who really get "who they are" from the Word of God. They get who they are from books about the Word of God, or from a person that tells them they're this or that. And we're used to living by the opinions of people instead of the truth of who our Father says we are.

Q: HOW WOULD YOU ENCOURAGE PEOPLE WHO ARE PRAYING FOR THE SICK AND NOT SEEING HEALING?

TW: In Mark 16 it says, "and these signs shall follow them that believe...they'll lay hands on the sick, and the sick shall recover." Jesus said in John 14 that these same things He did those that believe will do because He was going to go be with God the Father. And so Jesus defines then when He said, "Anything you ask in prayer in My name, it will be given to you." And in John 5:19 Jesus said, "The Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do; for whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner." He went on to say in John 10, "If you don't believe in Me through the things that I say, at least believe in Me through the works that I do. For it's the Father that dwells in Me who does the works." So how did the Father dwell in Jesus — through the Holy Spirit. But on the day of Pentecost, that same Holy Spirit that Jesus said was going to come empowered them to "be" a witness because up until that point the disciples were already "doing" witnessing. So now when the Holy Spirit came, the disciples who were operating in power as orphans began operating in power as sons because the spirit of son-ship, the spirit of Abba Father, had come to rest inside of them and upon them. And that's where everything broke forth from these guys. And so every believer that has the Holy Spirit, the same Holy Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead, can go out there and lay hands on the sick, and the sick can recover.

Q: SHARE WITH US ABOUT ONE OF THE HEALINGS THAT YOU HAVE WITNESSED

TW: On an average day, we could see 20 or more people touched. Honestly, the greatest miracle to me is a life that is completely transformed that doesn't look anything like it did before. That to me is the greatest miracle ever. Jesus didn't just come to get us to Heaven. He came to get Heaven into us, and when Heaven gets into us, we get to destroy hell for a living. 1 John 3:8 says, "For this reason the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil." So that's always my number one priority. As far as miracles go, we've seen the blind see, the deaf hear, the lame walk, the poor have the Gospel preached to them. We've seen Hepatitis and AIDS completely crushed! We've just seen amazing things.

UNITED WE STAND

The sound of the alarm clock echoes in the darkness. You sit up and rub the sleep from your eyes. You hit the button and quickly start your morning routine.

By the time you're dressed and ready to leave, the sun is peeking over the horizon.

You take a look in the mirror and adjust the badge on your chest. The thought drifts in, "Will I make it home today?"

You push it out of your mind, take one last look at your family photo on the wall, and head out the door.

This is the reality of life as a police officer. Each day they serve our communities putting their lives on the line.

The recent Dallas shooting confronted the world with this harsh truth: some never make it home.

Wickedness is growing around us. We've seen failures in our justice systems, people killed for being different, and now the targeting of police.

What can overcome such darkness? Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., once reminded us that only love could.

It was in this spirit that Marcus Lamb, on Daystar's Marcus and Joni, committed to give a minimum of $10,000 to each family of the five officers killed in the Dallas shootings as well as the families of the two African-American men recently killed in police-related shootings in Louisiana and Minnesota. After inviting viewers to give, the response was tremendous. Standing together, we can show the love of Christ to those hurting who've suffered such a great loss, and we can change our world for the better! This is an opportunity to do more than just talk about a solution, but to become part of one. It's simple to join us - just use the enclosed form to make your own contribution to this special fund!

SILENT NO MORE

Imagine standing in front of a stove. You look up at the clock. You have 15 minutes to have dinner ready. Your hands tremble at the thought of not finishing in time. You set the table just as a key slides in the front door lock.

Putting on your best smile, you usher him to his place at the table. Suddenly, you realize you forgot to season his food the way he likes it. Your heart starts pounding. Maybe he won't notice. Maybe...

This is just one example of the the terror suffered in silence by victims of domestic violence every day. According to the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence, nearly 20 people per minute are physically abused by an intimate partner in the United States alone.

On Joni Table Talk, we strive to confront issues that need to be talked about, and that's why we seized the opportunity to bring awareness to this issue at Gateway Church's annual Pink Impact Conference. Sharing their own domestic violence experiences, recording artist Nicole C. Mullen and Table Talk's own Dorothy Newton gave a voice to the struggles so many face behind closed doors, making one unforgettable program.

We can end this terrible act by shining the light on it! I am so excited to share both of these programs with you this month, and I'm believing that many who watch will find the courage to speak out and find the help that they need.

If this is you today, I want you to know that there is hope. You're not alone. Please call our Daystar prayer center and let us pray with you and give you resources to make the change in your own life! You can also connect with us at Daystar.com/Prayer. We love you, God loves you, and the best is still to come for you!
