MARCUS LAMB

"Earlier this week, my husband, who is paralyzed from the waist down, was in severe pain. I called Daystar after giving him pain meds and praying, laying hands on him. The lady at Daystar prayed with us for him and shortly after, his pain was gone. We love Daystar! It has delivered truth, hope and healing power to us. It is our church due to our present situation. Daystar has increased our faith, and strengthened our relationship with God."

DREAMING BIG & ACHIEVING GOALS

WITH TERRI SAVELLE FOY

Q: Your dad, Jerry Savelle, is one of the world's great preachers of the faith, how was it growing up with a dad like that?

A: My dad is my hero! One of the things I love about him is that he is the same in front of thousands as he is at home. He is such an example of the love of God to me. I did have to learn that just like God is no respecter of persons, neither is the devil. I didn't get a free pass at troubles because my dad is Jerry Savelle, I had to learn how to stand against the devil and fight him myself.

Q: Tell us about how you found your true purpose and began following your dreams. Was there a certain "turning point" moment?

A: In 2002, my life and my marriage were falling apart. During this time, I made a commitment to do five things every day, just trying to survive. Those things were: spend time in prayer, listen to a faith-building message, read, review my goals, and exercise. Little did I know, those habits became a catalyst to my destiny. I began working harder on myself than I did on my job and that has led me where I am today. I'm happy to say that I've continued doing those 5 five habits to this day (and we're still married)!

Q: What kind of fears have you faced in pursuit of your dreams, and how were you able to overcome them?

A: I was overcome with insecurity and fear for much of my life. To think that I would minister on TV or to crowds around the world would have been impossible. I had to start feeding my faith and spending time with the Lord. He began to change me from the inside out. Faith and fear are two opposite forces and you can't be full of both. If you're full of fear, you need more faith. The number one method God has given us to increase our faith is "faith comes by hearing." I began a daily habit of "pushing play" by hearing a faith-building message. Then, I started making positive declarations such as: "I am confident to speak to live audiences. I am in the perfect will of God. I have sought the Lord and He has delivered me from all my fears." What you repeatedly hear, you eventually believe. And you believe your own words more than anybody else's. My thoughts began to line up with my words. I've also learned that you can't wait for the fear to go away before you step out. In fact, I had to learn to put myself in uncomfortable situations in order to stretch and to grow into the next level God had for my life.

Q: What is one of your New Year's resolutions for 2016?

A: I keep hearing this phrase in my spirit, "It's better to be world class at a few things than mediocre at most things." I don't want to be an average or mediocre teacher; therefore, I plan to invest more time reading books in order to grow more, learn more and prepare greater messages. I know the best way to start a habit and keep it is to do it at the same time each day. One of my New Year's resolutions is to read 30 minutes or more every day so I continue growing and learning.

Q: The recent attacks in Paris have everyone talking about France. What makes the country so special to you?

A: I graduated from Texas Tech University with a degree in French, and I never really understood why I was so interested in that language. When my dad took me on a trip to France, I absolutely fell in love with the French people. In 2008, the Lord spoke to me and told me to make an impact in that nation for Him. Since then, we have given away over 22,000 copies of one of my books translated in French through the streets of Paris. Statistically, Evangelical Christian believers account for only 0.8% of the population and 80% claim to have never seen or owned a Bible! However, I'm declaring consistently that Jesus is Lord of France and I am committed to doing everything I can to impact these precious people.

Q: Daystar recently launched on "Free" in France – the only Christian Television Network in their programming line up! What kind of an impact do you think this will have?

A: I was so excited when I heard Daystar launched on "Free!" I really appreciate the Lamb's commitment to bring the Gospel to France (and around the world). The French people are so hungry for the Word. Romans 10:14 (NLT) says, "But how can they call on Him to save them unless they believe in Him? And how can they believe in Him if they have never heard about Him? And how can they hear about Him unless someone tells them?" God is using Daystar to reach the French people and I believe this is only the beginning of a spiritual awakening that is coming!

"You can't wait for the fear to go away before you step out!"

STANDING FOR FRANCE

November 13, 2015, probably started the same as every other day. Cars zipped through crowded streets. The smell of fresh bread coming from the corner bistro lingered in the air. Young children walked in tandem on their way to school. But by that evening, the people of Paris would be rocked by the horrors of multiple terrorist attacks, which claimed 130 lives. In an instant, their world was changed forever. Where was hope? Where was peace?

Yet when Paris woke the next morning, they rose to the sight of something truly remarkable. They had millions of neighbors, businesses, and even strangers an entire ocean away declaring "I Stand with Paris!" And Daystar was among those proclaiming their support.

"After hearing about the attacks, our hearts went out to the people of Paris," said Marcus D. Lamb, founder of Daystar Television Network. "Remarkably, just days before, God had opened the door for Daystar to launch on FREE in Paris, France. In His great wisdom, He perfectly positioned us to minister hope to the French people in this dark time."

Today, Daystar is a beacon of hope and encouragement each and every day, reaching 5.5 million Parisian households with the Gospel as the only Christian network on Free, Channel 422.

As a Daystar Partner, you make this possible. It's only through your faithful support that we are able to stand with Paris in this time of need. Thank you for giving to touch lives, and continue to stand for hope, for peace, for Paris.

REVIVAL'S ON THE WAY

As a little girl, I remember it like a dream. The family dressed in our Sunday best. Daddy's aftershave lingered in the air as he carried me from the car to the church. Mama smiled as the pastor welcomed us at the door. We always sat in the same spot, and I could barely see over the pew. I remember everyone seemed so excited to be in church. We were in revival, and it was standing room only.

I guess you could say I grew up in a culture of revival. The raising of hands, tears on some faces, smiles on others – these weren't just the signs of what we thought revival was. No, these were the signs of lives being changed. I remember the altar being full, and from the pulpit, an evangelist bringing a challenging word, stirring a hunger in us for more of God.

Over the last few months, it's been like a walk down memory lane as we put the finishing touches on a new Daystar album, "Old Time Revival with Marcus Lamb and Friends." Capturing the joy and spirit of revival that swept across the 20th century, this album brings you back to the tent revivals of the 40's and 50's, where men and women were awakened to the power of God.

As I am writing this, we just wrapped shooting music videos for some of our favorite tracks. And if you think the music will take you back, wait until you see us all dressed up in our vintage throwback 1940's attire! My bestie, Cindy Murdock, and I even shocked ourselves when we looked in the mirror and saw our mothers staring back at us! I'm telling you, if for no other reason than to see all the costumes and hairdos, you don't want to miss this.

Perhaps what I'm most excited about is my sweetheart, Marcus, stepping up behind the keys for this album. I'm so proud of all his hard work, and I can't wait for you to hear him play and, yes, even sing on the new record. So mark your calendars! Don't miss our music videos' world premiere set for the first week of February! And tell your friends, "Revival's on the way!"

FROM THE DESK OF MARCUS LAMB

A Fresh Start

Dear Partners & Friends,

It's hard to believe that a new year is already here. Yet, many of us are still stuck in 2015. We are still thinking about the problems and difficulties of last year and the mistakes we made.

But the good news is that this is a new year, so it is an opportunity for a fresh start! There are going to be new opportunities for you this year! I love the verse in Lamentations 3:23 that says, "His mercies are new every morning." That's God's attitude towards you and me!

So, Joni & I, along with our Daystar Prayer Team, are going to believe with you that this new year of 2016 is going to be better for you than the old year of 2015.

A few weeks ago, I preached at Lakewood Church in Houston, Texas for my good friend Pastor Joel Osteen. I had a casket brought into the church, and my sermon title was: "It's Time to Bury the Past, And Look Forward to the Future!" That's what you need to do in this coming year.

Here is a great scripture for you to hold on to:

2 Corinthians 5:17 – "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature. Old things are passed away, behold, all things are become new."

In order for God to give us a "fresh start," we need to make sure to be faithful to our commitments to God. So I want to encourage you to start this new year off right by paying on your pledge to Daystar. When you keep your commitments to God, He will keep His commitments to you!

On November 23, your Daystar became the first Christian TV Network to launch in HD (High Definition) on BSkyB in the United Kingdom on Channel 583!

The whole world has been focused on the Islamic Extremist terrorist attacks in Paris, France. Just before the attacks, one of the largest multi-channel TV Platforms in France – Free – signed a contract to make your Daystar the first Christian TV Network to launch across France! Daystar literally means "a light that shines in darkness," and that's what we want to do in France.

It is your faithfulness that makes all of this possible.

We need to send some large amounts of money to bless Israel. If you made a pledge for Israel, please send in what you can this month!!!

Yours For Christian Television,

Marcus D. Lamb
Founder & President, Daystar Television Network

P.S. Our new granddaughter, Arielle, is doing well!

GATEWAY FIRST CONFERENCE

JANUARY 4-6 – Don't miss the Gateway First Conference airing live on Daystar, January 4-6 at 9:00 p.m. CT each night, with special guest speakers Samuel Rodriguez, Christine Caine and Ravi Zacharias!

"I can't thank God enough for the blessing He has bestowed upon me through Daystar, and I am so grateful to be a partner in contributing to how God is using this ministry in the Holy Nation of Israel, and all over the world. My faith is growing each day from all the dynamic teachings you air. You are a true inspiration in my life, and I can't get enough. Daystar is a big part of my life, and always will be."

– Shirley from New Britain, Connecticut

"I thank the Lord Jesus Christ for Daystar because when I'm going through the storms, I can get up in the morning and have such peace and joy. I turn the television on Daystar and listen to the worship and praise with 'Reflections.' It's not only a comfort to my soul, but it fills my heart and mind with the words of God's promises. Though I don't get to travel, I give the Lord such praise for letting me be able to see different places around the world that He has made. Thanks for "Reflections!"

– Tanya from Lenoir, North Carolina
