CHRISTMAS INTERVIEW WITH NICOLE C. MULLEN

We recently had the opportunity to sit down with Christian recording artist Nicole C. Mullen to talk about her Christmas album, along with her favorite Christmas songs and traditions. Here is what she had to say –

Tell me a bit about your Christmas album.

The album is called “Christmas in Black and White,” and has a double meaning. For one, Christmas is about what is celebrated on the pages of scripture. The true meaning of Christmas is black and white just like the rest of scripture. There’s no grey area. Also, my family – many of whom were featured on the album with me – is comprised of a whole canvas of different colors – from black to white to tan – so for me Christmas is about all different colors of skin, not just one shade.

What is your favorite song on the album?

There are too many! It’s like trying to choose a favorite child. One song I really enjoy is “The Christmas Song” because I sang that one with my dad. Some other favorites would be “Lamb Of God” and “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel.”

How about your favorite current Christmas tradition?

Well, on Christmas Eve we all get together and read the Christmas story from the Bible, and then we each get to open one present. The rest have to wait until Christmas morning!

Year-End Tax Benefits

The Blessed Life is a Giving Life.

Dear Friend of Daystar,
The end of the year is almost here, but you still have time to get your Year-End gift in before December 31st to help Daystar Television continue to broadcast into Israel and every nation of the world. Want to be a further blessing to Israel and make a difference around the world? Why not consider increasing your donations by just 1%? Your Daystar has some exciting plans for 2014, and we want the blessings of God to flow your way too as we partner together.

Many people think that they have to be rich to make a meaningful bequest to Daystar Television. But over time, even a small gift can have significant impact. Other non-cash gifts can also become an instrument in God’s hands to spread the Gospel.

Gifts of stocks, securities, cars, boats, airplanes, mutual funds, life insurance, or jewelry can be a tax benefit for you.

Our very own Financial Advisor, Debbie Carter, would love to talk with you about your will, planned giving, an endowment, retirement, and year end giving and help you in any way possible—a free service to our Daystar partners. Give Debbie a call at 817-879-1997 today.

SPOTLIGHT devotional

by Alan Bullock

The deception of sin had reached its height. The Father looking down saw the suffering and misery, and moved with compassion, answered in the form of a Cradle, a Cross and a Crown. He arranged for a perfect sacrificial Lamb to begin life in the cradle of a lowly manger. This cradle was the Genesis of Christianity. He grew to manhood scarcely being noticed for 30 years, spotless and sinless. As He began his anointed ministry, hypocritical leaders were quickly motivated to plot his death. There never was, isn’t, and never will be another spotless, sinless and perfect One in life and deed who could stand in the gap for all of humanity as God’s perfect Lamb and become the substitute for our sins on the Cross – the pinnacle of sacrifice. They didn’t realize that their evil plan fulfilled God’s purpose for his son. His conquering of sin, sickness, poverty and death entitles him to the crown – the climax of sovereignty, befitting the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Is it any wonder why we hail Him as the Matchless-Redeemer? Is it any wonder that Christians understand and celebrate the true meaning of Christmas? Why, because of the Cradle, the Cross and the Crown! Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
