partners;

LOVING THE LAND

During the 2013 Fall Sharathon we offered you, our partners, the unique opportunity to donate towards Daystar's efforts in Israel, and in return receive a one square foot parcel of privately owned land nestled between Nazareth and the Sea of Galilee. With only 7 percent of the land in Israel being privately owned, the remainder of which being owned or managed by the State of Israel, it's important that we work towards preserving the privately owned land for agricultural use. Thanks to your generous donations and support, we were able to do just that – preserving the land you purchased for future farming and agricultural use, which will in turn benefit Israeli farmers along with the economy.

Partners, thank you so much for your consistent and overwhelming support of Israel – you are the ones who make it possible for us to bless Israel through projects such as this!

Pursuing Christ through Corporate Worship and Fellowship >>

Hebrews 10:25

Worship (along with prayer, Bible study and fellowship) is integral to the life of HIS church and individual Christians' for developing unity, sacramental life, and spiritual growth (Col. 1:9-10). The ultimate goal in both private and corporate worship is to seek intimacy with, and a greater love for the Lord, allowing him to defeat any idols of the heart. Church attendance is a time of celebrating what Christ did on the cross, and an opportunity to have a transformational encounter with Jehovah! But what is true worship? Worship is the spiritual activity by which we draw near to God in Christ, entering His presence with prayer, praise, and confession of sin. True communion is to hear His Word with the intent to obey it. Jesus teaches that true worship is not only "in spirit," but also "in truth" (Jn. 4:24). Pure, free-flowing worship and anointed preaching keeps his church from spiritual anorexia (Ps. 100:1-5). It provides the world with the proper example of a reverential, relevant, supernatural presentation of the Gospel with the theme of the redemption of sinners and the rejuvenation and restoration of God's creation (Matt. 5:16). Dear friend, this is a season in which Christ is inviting you on a spiritual journey to drink from the deeper wells of living water – God invites – we must respond! Then, we can truly worship God and walk side-by-side with Christ as we are transformed from "glory to glory" (2 Cor. 3:18).

From the beginning man has always wanted to know more about God and His ways. Moses stood on the mountain and asked God to help him understand them, King David stood on the palace wall and asked God to teach them to him, the Apostle Paul stated that we are to be stewards of them, and Jesus said we have the ability to understand them. Yet, in all this, there are still some mysteries about God and His ways that most do not know.

It is not that mysteries are a secret, they are not; it is that answers to mysteries have to be searched for, they seldom just appear. Perhaps this is one reason why Solomon wrote, "It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings is to search the matter out" (Proverbs 25:2). Searching for God and His ways can be glorious.

There are many mysteries contained in the Kingdom of God; dreams, visions, time, prophecy, choice, spiritual laws, and so much more. All that is in the Bible is knowable, but it is not known to most. These are the matters that I want to help you to understand. Matters you may have pondered on or thought about, but did not know how to find; spiritual matters that once you know them can make your life in God so much more exciting.

This is what Dreams & Mysteries is all about.
