"Your show, 'Reflections,' has really helped me. I often wake up in the middle of the night due to pain in my back and my legs, so I leave Daystar on quietly when I go to sleep. Now if I wake up, I watch 'Reflections' and the Lord will always give me a verse to encourage me. I believe the Lord will heal me! In the mean time, thank you for your ministry - it's so helpful to me!"

LOVE AND REDEMPTION

WITH RON & HOPE CARPENTER

Q: How did you guys meet?

HOPE: We met in 1987 at Emmanuel College and it was literally love at first sight. I knew that Ron was the person that I would spend the rest of my life with! He embodied everything that I had imagined a husband would be.

RON: I felt the same way. But I was scared of her because I knew that if I ever dated her, that we would end up getting married.

Q: Tell us about the first few years of your marriage!

A: We had a fairytale romance for three years before our wedding in 1990. We were married the day after Ron's college graduation and two weeks after that we moved to Knoxville, Tennessee and started a church. We had little missionary money for the first few years of our marriage - meaning we itinerated to different churches and asked them to support us in this church plant. Whatever came in is what we lived on, so we literally lived by faith.

Q: If you could renew your vows to each other, what would be your opening sentence?

A: We both agree that if we could renew our vows, the very first sentence would be what most people put at the end - the "til death do us part, I promise to..." We have found out in marriage - not just ours, but everyone's we know - you will have ups and downs, good days and bad days. But divorce can never be an option because you're just going to move on to another broken person. We truly believe that God knows our brokenness and He entrusts our spouse to be the one to help, love, cover, and protect.

Q: If you could share one piece of wisdom with a new couple about to enter into marriage, what would you share?

A: There are no perfect marriages because there are no perfect people, and we will always inevitably find ourselves in trials in disagreement. But, keep moving forward! Honesty and open communication is the key. And if you find yourself in a desperate situation, please seek professional help to sort through the issues of marriage and life.

Q: How important is communication with your spouse?

A: Communication is so key. And by that, we don't just mean talking, but being honest about how you think and feel even if it rocks the boat. The more you're not honest, the more you stuff things down. Just because you didn't speak the truth doesn't mean that you don't still think it and feel it. That then creates bitterness and resentment. Honesty is important. The Bible says to speak the truth in love and that takes this honesty element to another degree. We don't speak the truth in anger and in haste and angrily, we speak the truth in love.

Q: What's one thing your spouse does for you that makes you feel the most loved?

HOPE: Ron knows that I enjoy my sleep more than he does, and it makes me feel so loved when I am free to go to bed when I want to. I know that sounds cheesy but it really means a lot to me!

RON: I really love it when Hope just sits on the couch and watches a movie with me, or sits and talks about anything... Quality time means a lot to me.

Q: What's the last fun thing you guys have done together?

A: Everybody has a different definition of fun, but to us the fun thing we love to do together is travel. We make a conscious effort to plan trips, overnights, even if it's only an hour away. Just to get away, go out to dinner, and have fun together.

Q: What are three words you would use to describe your marriage?

A: Exciting, Respect, Honor

Q: What can readers expect when they tune in to your weekly program on Daystar?

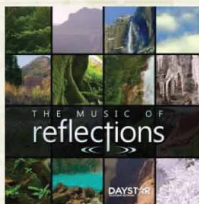

A: Our weekly program includes powerful praise and worship and dynamic preaching that is relevant but never compromises the Word of God. We plan in the future to do some type of sit down talk show about marriage which is so needed in today's society.

Music of reflections

In a small seaside community, a young mother gets up at sunrise. Before her day erupts with all the things she must tend to, she stands at her window looking out over the dew-covered valley as the sun crests over the top of the horizon. Pushing play on a small CD player, she's suddenly transported into the presence of God for a time of prayer and meditation on God's Word with Daystar's Music of Reflections CD.

Through Daystar's original program, Reflections, viewers are taken each week to exotic, peaceful locations around the world as we share encouraging words from the Bible, and many of these places are so remote that they've rarely been seen by human eyes.

Now imagine experiencing the anointing and serenity of that program's beautiful music at home, at work, or in your car whenever you need to simply get away.

This indispensable worship and prayer tool will help any listener find the stillness that only comes from delicately composed, prayerfully selected songs that will lift any spirit and brighten their day as they grow in their walk with the Lord.

Through our on-air program, this music goes around the world ministering to countless people who need to feel the hope and love of God right where they are, and it's all thanks to partners just like you.

With your gift of $15 or more this month, we want to send you a copy of Music of Reflections to be a blessing in your life. Simply return the enclosed form with your donation and we'll do the rest!

CELEBRATING A friend

There are rare moments in life where you meet someone and have an instant connection. I'll never forget the first time I met my dear friend, John Paul Jackson. He just seemed to carry the presence of God with him. And he always had such wisdom to share.

It's been a few years since John Paul was promoted to heaven, but many of his teachings and messages are truly timeless. So in 2017, we decided to revisit some of our favorite programs with him on Table Talk, and your response was tremendous. That's why I've decided to bring back another series of John Paul Jackson programs this month.

The week of February 19th we're sharing five John Paul programs that were powerful and informative. So mark your calendars because you don't want to miss him sharing about the hierarchy of angels and demons and what that should mean to us. Plus, he'll teach us the importance of power and authority, how to recognize and overcome the Absalom Spirit, and what is sin.

It's a week-long celebration of our beloved friend and the wisdom and anointing he carried. So make plans to join us at the table as we celebrate my dear friend, John Paul Jackson, this month on Joni Table Talk.

EVENTS

FEBRUARY 14, 16, & 17

XO Conference

Gateway Church - Southlake, TX
XO, hosted by Pastor Jimmy & Karen Evans, is the largest marriage conference of its kind, designed to enhance intimacy, renew passion, and refresh your relationship. Watch and encounter God's dream for your future.

"We pledged $42 during 'Heart for the World.' We began to see a difference in our bank account and even had a little extra. It was good that we did, because my husband lost his job. I believe it was because we had already been giving that we were able to still pay our bills. He now has an even better job and we plan to continue our giving. To God be the glory!"

Susie from Florida

"Today after a long and challenging day of ministry in my community, I found an unexpected package at my door from Daystar! It was the Beatitudes Mug! Matthew 5:6 was the exact Scripture I needed to hear! It blessed my downtrodden heart and lifted my spirits to press on. May God continue to bless Daystar in such abundance, beyond what you could hope for!"
