MISSION: MARRIAGE

Worth the fight.

"My husband & I both were completely committed to watching each and every single program available. We were blessed with immediate results just by tuning in and allowing God transform our selfish, prideful ways. It was such a blessing that we need more of it! The best was the preaching by Robert Morris, T.D. Jakes and Jimmy Evans. God is still working in us and using Daystar to bring us to fresh healing waters... We hope for more Mission: Marriage teachings." Rachel R.

Someone once said, "If you don't know, and aren't known, by hurting and needy people, you have a crisis at the center of your Christianity." This brief statement characterizes the life and mission of Jesus who severed with generosity (Luke 19:10). Christ never called the church to be passive participants, but instead we are called to holistic Gospel living

I just wanted to share...

February is a very special month to me because 30 years ago, on February 14th, Marcus proposed to me. We were young kids in our early twenties contemplating a life of serving God and full time ministry. Little did I know what God had in store for us. If He had shown me all that He had planned, I would have probably run the other direction as fast as I could like the biblical Jonah. God never shows us everything and I think it's a good thing.

Day by day we walk by faith, not by sight. Of course, I have enjoyed this 30 year journey with my sweetheart with its mountains, valleys, joys and tears. God has been faithful every step of the way. So, if you're fretting about tomorrow, trust God and leave tomorrow in His hands. Tomorrow never comes, so enjoy the journey today and trust the Lord to unfold your tomorrows. If you don't have a sweetheart, husband or wife, that's okay... You have One who will never leave you, nor forsake you. Until the appointed time that He brings that special someone, be content in knowing that you're not alone. He's just a prayer away. If you do have a special someone, take a moment to let them know that you love them...Happy Valentines!

My Story

from a country that is closed to the Gospel

I am determined to worship God in the church, in spite of the authority's blockage. By God's grace I was able to attend gatherings in Jeddah, though it is miles away from my work place. I get a strong signal of your channel on the HotBird satellite. God bless you more!

Why I Partner with Daystar:

Because, through you, I fulfill the great commission of going to the world preaching and sharing the good news of salvation.

<< Serving with Generosity >>

"If any man serve me, let him follow me, and where I am there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honor." John 12:26 through spiritual and monetary generosity (1 Corinthians 4:2). Serving with generosity is about focusing on becoming good news people before proclaiming the good news message. Genuine kingdom people strive first to provide a credible witness and then are eager to be used of God to reach our needy world. Serving with generosity is not only supporting the work and mission of God with our financial and prayerful resources, but also about serving one's family by being generous with one's love, affection, trust, companionship and quality time (Ephesians 5:31-32). This month, take time to serve with generosity in someone's life and watch God return the blessing back to you!
