TESTIMONIES from AROUND THE WORLD

"Thank you for a WONDERFUL RTC – the first one I was able to come to. We came all the way from Seattle! It was worth every minute of planning and travel time to get there. We met so many wonderful people and were blessed in so many ways. Thank you again! The presence of the Lord was so evident. And all your staff were so pleasant and friendly. God bless you Daystar. Blessings from Seattle!" – Lisa

THE EARTH

Thank you to all of our partners for making our fall Sharathon a huge success! Because of your generous donations, we raised funds that will keep Daystar going strong all across the world.

This Sharathon, along with our normal fundraising, we highlighted two additional causes. We raised money to take Daystar to Canada; this will make us the first and only full time Christian network on television there.

We are so excited to spread the message of Jesus to more of our Canadian friends. We also presented you with the House of Hope, a facility that will provide a home to some of the many Holocaust survivors living impoverished in Israel. Your response was overwhelming. We praise God for the chance to add dignity to the lives of these precious people who have suffered so much.

In addition to all of this, Fall Sharathon proved that – thanks to your gracious giving – we really are covering the earth. We received pledges from almost 100 countries, including places not open to the Gospel, like Iran and Saudi Arabia.

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you. Your gifts are not unnoticed by our Father, and your reward in heaven will be great!

<< Joy, a Doctrine of God - John 15:11 >>

Modern atheism is a sad result, at least in part, from distortions allowed to enter into Christian doctrine from both Greek philosophy and a lack of sound biblical exegesis proving that we serve a loving, covenant-keeping God. God cares about our lives and is touched by our infirmities (Isaiah 53); He is not some domineering puppeteer. While the god of Greek thought remains aloof and indifferent, correct theology (doctrine) teaches that Abba Father treats us as a caring parent who provides hope as we seek a genuine relationship with Him (Psalm 16:11). Unlike the Greeks and atheists, we are blessed to know the One who doesn't remain at a distance worrying about His own reputation, but One who boldly stepped down from heaven in the embodiment of Christ Jesus; rescuing humankind from their distress (Hebrews 12:2) and opening a door to genuine Christian joy - an outcrop of one's salvation experience (Zechariah 9:9). Joy conjoins faith and hope. As these graces are exercised daily, spiritual joy increases so much so that joy and the rest of the fruit of the Spirit become a part of the foundation of the Christian's experience and character. This endowment is granted only to His redeemed, and obtained for them by His blood. Child of God, if you have lost your joy, Christ stands ready to anoint you once again with times of refreshing (Psalm 51:12). Jesus will cause gladness and joy to overtake you, and sorrow and sighing will be driven far away (Isaiah 35:10).

Refreshing Times Conference is finally here!

In just a few days, people from all over the country will join together to worship and receive from the Word. I can't wait to see what God is going to do in the lives of all who attend.

This year we have assembled one of the most exciting lineups we have ever had at RTC - Bishop T.D. Jakes, John Hagee, Jentezen Franklin, John Paul Jackson and comedian John Gray.

With the vast array of ministry represented, there is sure to be something everyone will enjoy. Of course, the Daystar Singers and Band will be there to lead everyone in worship. It will truly be a time to remember as we receive refreshing from the Lord.

It seems that the world is as chaotic as it has ever been, and believers are not immune from difficult seasons. However, God has promised that when we draw close to him, "times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord," (Acts 3:19). As we come together at this conference, focused on the Lord, we know that we will truly have Refreshing Times.

If you haven't already, make plans now to join me at RTC, November 1-3, at the Fort Worth Convention Center in Fort Worth, Texas. Remember, the conference is free, but you have to register so we know you're coming. Hurry! We have already received a record number of registrations, and seating is limited. Sign up today at daystar.com/rtc.
